Description

Antique Irish silver spoon hallmarked for Dublin 1806. This is an unusual spoon, 17cm long, larger than a teaspoon, smaller than a dessert spoon and with the letter 'N' on the handle. Underneath the N there is what looks like an animal's face, difficult to see as it's worn, and below the face there is evidence there was once something else there, now missing. I hope you can see a small patch in the pictures. It weighs 260 grams and is in good condition. Unusual piece of Irish history, almost 220 years old. Free UK postage
