Description

Victorian Mahogany Kneehole Desk, circa 1870 A fine Victorian period kneehole desk in mahogany, dating from around 1870. The oblong top has a thumb-moulded edge with a rear gallery upstand, above a frieze fitted with three drawers. A further bank of three drawers to either side flank a central kneehole with inset cabinet. Each drawer retains its original turned mahogany handles, brass escutcheons and locks. The desk stands on a plinth base and is fitted with four concealed original castors for ease of movement. Quality & Presentation A well-proportioned and attractive desk in original condition, carefully cleaned and wax-polished in our workshop, and now ready for immediate use. Dimensions Height to desk top: 76.5 cm (30") Height to gallery: 81 cm (31.875") Width: 130 cm (51") Depth: 57.75 cm (22.75") Kneehole clearance: 61.5 cm (24.25") high x 44.5 cm (17.5") wide Condition Good original condition, commensurate with age. Structurally sound and sturdy. Minor marks, blemishes and signs of use consistent with age. Retains original handles, locks, escutcheons and castors. Fully serviced, cleaned and wax-polished. A handsome and practical Victorian mahogany kneehole desk...
