Description

This antique 20th-century Arts & Crafts side table is a superb example of fine craftsmanship and timeless design. Crafted from golden oak, it is very well built and of exceptional quality, showcasing a stunning natural grain and warm, rich golden tones throughout. The table features an octagonal top, offering a distinctive and elegant shape, along with a practical lower shelf for added functionality. Its solid construction ensures durability, while the beautiful finish highlights the care and skill that went into its creation. A highly desirable example of the Arts & Crafts movement, this side table has been carefully preserved and remains in good condition. Perfect for a living room, bedroom, or study, it adds both character and sophistication to any home. Product Reference : AF - 4403
