Description

This antique 20th century 4-tier bookcase by Globe Wernicke is a superb example of high-quality craftsmanship and functional design. Made from rich mahogany, it features four beautifully glazed, fully functioning sections, each bearing the distinctive Globe Wernicke plaques on the inside, emphasizing its authenticity and heritage. A single drawer at the base provides additional storage, while the bookcase stands firmly on a plinth base, showcasing gorgeous grain and colour throughout. All original brass handles and fittings remain intact, further enhancing the piece's character and period charm. Uniquely versatile, the sections can be adjusted to the desired height by removing any that are not needed, making it highly adaptable for different spaces. Very well built and in great condition, this Globe Wernicke bookcase is a highly desirable example, combining practicality, elegance, and timeless style—an exceptional addition to any home.
