Description

Antique Mahogany Side Cupboard by Maple & Co. A fine example of a classic design. This exquisite bedside cupboard, crafted by the renowned Maple & Co., is a superb example of early 20th-century craftsmanship. Constructed in C1900 from a rich, warm mahogany, the piece showcases a beautiful patina achieved through its original French polished finish, which has been meticulously preserved over time. The cabinet's design is both elegant and functional, featuring clean lines complemented by the subtle grace of boxwood inlaid stringing that outlines the front panel of the door. The solid Mahogany top of the cabinet is distinguished by a serpentine up-stand, a charming and classic detail that adds a touch of sophistication. This functional piece would have served as a versatile bedside or side table, the panel door opens to reveal a single, fixed central shelf which provides practical storage. The cabinet retains its original ornate brass turn latch, a delightful detail that features a decorative ring handle, adding to its authentic period charm. A testament to its provenance, the cabinet is complete with its original Maple & Co. circular badge affixed to the back of the door...
