Description

A real survivor, a Queen Anne antique Britannia silver sugar caster. Made in London by specialist caster maker Charles Adam in 1705. This 320 year old Britannia standard 950 silver sugar caster is in amazing condition with no damage or repairs. As with most high percentage silver items the hallmarks are rubbed but between the body and the lid a full set is legible. This one of the best value Queen Anne casters you will find in stunning condition.
