Description

Antique Victorian Mahogany Mirror Back Sideboard An outstanding condition original period sideboard. This is a magnificent antique Victorian mahogany C1860 mirror back server sideboard, a superb piece of furniture that has been sympathetically restored whilst keeping its originality. The rich patina and character evident throughout the piece speak to its age and history. The sideboard is crafted from a beautiful, rich mahogany with a deep, lustrous grain. It retains its original French polished finish, which has been carefully cleaned and waxed, enhancing the wood's natural beauty and preserving its authentic, aged appearance. The top of the sideboard features a large, rectangular mirror complete with its original plate glass embellished with a moulded frame and a highly decorative, carved crest at its peak. The mirror's frame is adorned with intricate carvings, and the back is designed to be easily removed by unscrewing five screws, leaving no visible signs on the top surface. This clever design allows the piece to be used as a standalone sideboard base if desired, offering versatility to the buyer. Flanking the mirror are two carved wooden shelf supports, each with a...
