Description

A Fabulous Large Antique German Centrepiece Bowl showcasing a breath-taking marriage of vivid colour and ornate craftsmanship, this antique centrepiece bowl features an intricately pierced 800 silver outer frame with a removable cobalt blue glass liner. Crafted by M. Steenaerts and hallmarked accordingly, the silver overlay is decorated with trailing grapevines, clusters, and scrolling foliage - offering both elegance and vineyard-inspired richness – circa 1900. * This really is a stunning representation of early 1900s Continental silverware, combining function, artistry, and striking colour in one sophisticated centrepiece. Measurements: Height: 7 1/2" (approx. 19cm) Diameter across top: 10 1/4" (approx. 26cm) Diameter of blue glass liner: 8 3/4" (approx. 22.5cm) Silver weight: 796g Total weight: 1600g In good condition – Some light surface wear and minor signs of age, but no major flaws. Glass liner intact and free from cracks. Both elements fit perfectly and present beautifully.
