Description

A outstanding and rare rosewood Whatnot / Canterbury Music Etagere dating to circa 1820. A classic Regency pediment top with turned finial columns above a single shelf which is supported by a second pair of turned columns above a second shelf. Below are two open sided compartments united by turned cross spandrels with dividers for papers or sheets of music or just books and folders. A full length drawer at the bottom with original castors finishes this very desirable piece. Excellent condition with just and a slight historic shrinkage fissure to the bottom shelf (see image). Size: 149cm H (top of pediment) x 62cm W x 36cm D
