Description

A large Victorian pine prep table dating to 1880. The table will have originally sat against a wall showing in the flat backed edge and would make a stunning large console table. It sits on four turned pine legs with a thick planked top which has wonderful character and texture that can only come from years of use and shows two honest repairs. In very good solid original condition. Length - 191.5cm Depth - 59cm Height - 81cm
