Description

Splendid pair of large late 19th.c walnut and leather library type armchairs c.1890. Padded backrests and arms over generous sprung seats (height 19") all in the original fire engine red leather upholstery. Very sturdy solid walnut frames with carved and moulded detail below the backrest and stout turned and segmented front legs, the rear legs swept slightly backwards for stability. Some minor wear to the leather, generally very good condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Width: 26" (66 cm) Height: 35" (89 cm) Depth: 24" (61 cm)
