Description

An early 18th-century oak lowboy side table with a rectangular moulded top and a single drawer fitted with a brass drop handle. It stands on four turned legs joined by straight stretcher supports. With its classic 18th-century design and warm oak finish, this piece combines period charm with practical elegance. Item Ref; M-6345 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 70cm / Width - 74.5cm / Depth - 47.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition, this farmhouse table shows the honest signs of age that give it such character. The top bears surface wear, old splits, and staining that highlight its long history of use, while the feet and stretchers show expected wear. Historic woodworm to the back has long since been treated, and the drawer interior carries some staining, all consistent with an authentic 19th-century piece full of rustic charm. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos.
