Description

Zwiener-Jansen Successeur 1885-1928 After Charles Topino 1742-1803 A late 19th century, French, Transitional tulipwood side table of the finest quality, after a model by Topino. Of oval form, the marquetry inlaid top with pierced gilt metal gallery, above a single oak lined drawer, each frieze inlaid with garlands. The four elongated cabriole legs, headed by finely chased and gilded bearded satyrs, above a narrow leafy inlaid panel and ending in gilt sabots. The lower tier and top inlaid with scrolling carnation flowers. The mask mounts with incised 'ZJ' from the master moulds. Height 28" (71cm) Width 17" (43cm) Depth 14 1/4" (36cm) French Circa 1900 Jean-Henri Jansen (1854-1928) founded the famous interior decoration firm of Maison Jansen in 1880. Manufacturing revival and Nouveau furniture he became Fournisseur de la Cour d'Espagne and was awarded a Silver Medal at both the 1883 Amsterdam Exhibition and the Paris 1889 Exposition Universelle. The firm relocated to 9, rue Royale, Paris, in 1885 around which time it incorporated the established firm of Joseph-Emmanuel Zwiener, renaming it Zwiener Jansen Successeur and adopting the practice of marking pieces, as can...
