

SA1166656

A Flight and Barr Worcester Porcelain Inkstand c.1804

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1166656*Date of manufacture: Georgian

Description

A Flight and Barr Worcester Porcelain Inkstand, c.1804, the serpentine shape set with two covered inkwells and a covered pounce pot, painted possibly by John Pennington with a scene of three dogs at repose in a woodland setting, reserved on a mazarine blue ground with formal gilt foliate motifs, the handle formed as a dolphin, incised B mark. Condition: Good condition with just a restored hairline crack to the base of the inkstand and possibly one of the covers.

Seller Details

Fine Antique English Porcelain

Exeter Devon United Kingdom

Tel: 07791 358757

International Tel: +44 7791 358757

