Description

A genuinely rare opportunity to acquire an original high end Art Deco pedestal /torchiere in showroom condition. Go have a little research and you'll see how rare this piece is. Those seasoned Art Deco collectors will understand and appreciate this piece. Standing very elegant this pedestal is beautifully veneered on all sides with a decorative carved mouldings to the base. Raised on a stylised heavily carved base with beautiful tulip u shape sits an ebony perfectly round ball. This is a solid column with rich colouring and a wonderful patina. This mix of veneers with heavily figured walnut and macassar ebony banding creates the feel of luxury and kerb appeal, what a perfect piece to create a focal point for your room or entryway. This pedestal would not have been accessible to many, offered only to the well connected and rich. We acquired this from a family home in London, although we believe the pedestal itself is most likely either French or Belgian in origin. Wonderful and totally authentic 1930's Art Deco stand that can showcase either a wonderful Art Deco figure or perhaps a jardinière. Condition is very good having been through our workshops and professionally re...
