Description

Lilian Stannard 1877-1944. She was one of a select group of 'garden painters' that included George Samuel Elgood and Helen Allingham whose primary subject was the English garden. A prolific artist, whose work became widely known through reproductions, first showed at the Royal Society of British Artists in 1898 and exhibited 28 watercolours of garden scenes at the RA between 1902-1930. She also exhibited at the SWA, Royal Birmingham Society of Artists, Walker Art Gallery, Liverpool, Royal Cambrian Academy and a large number of solo shows, especially at the galleries of Arthur Ackerman and the Mendoza gallery in London. Notable patrons included Queen Alexandra and Lady Anastasia Wernher for whom she painted a series of views of the gardens at Luton Hoo in Bedford. 'The Walled Garden in Summer', signed watercolour, image size 34x49.5 cms, framed size 59x73 cms. Framed in a top quality...
