Description

A superb Georgian Inlaid mahogany compactum wardrobe dating to circa 1810 and offering a huge storage capacity. Of excellent construction in solid mahogany with attractive flame mahogany veneers. With a pair of long hanging cupboards flanking a central section fitted with pull-out trays and drawers. The cupboard doors all decorated with attractive inset oval panels of flame mahogany. The two end full length cupboards are fitted with brass hanging rails. The central cupboard doors open to reveal a series of 5 graduated pull-out trays. Beneath which are a series of 3 graduated drawers fitted with their original brass bun handles. All of the cupboard doors are lockable (key supplied). All surmounted by an over sailing cornice with dentil moldings. The whole piece standing on bracket feet. Sympathetically repolished in our workshops to a very high standard. Now offered for sale in excellent condition with a rich colour and good patina. Splits into sections for ease of installation. Dimensions: Width 242cms Depth 59cms Height 213cms
