Description

A charming pair of oak dining chairs dating from the early 20th century. Each chair features a slatted back with simple carved detail to the crest rail, and twisted front legs united by stretchers. The seats have been newly upholstered in a light blue fabric, offering both comfort and elegance. Crafted in solid oak, the chairs display a warm colour and pleasing grain, combining durability with traditional style. The chairs are offered in very good condition, solid and ready for immediate use. A versatile addition to a dining room, kitchen, or period interior. We kindly ask you to review our delivery terms prior to purchase.
