Description

A beautifully patinated William and Mary burr elm chest on stand; the chest having a cross grain moulded cornice above two short and three long graduated drawers; the stand with a cross grain waist moulding and three drawers above an elegantly shaped apron and raised on turned legs united by shaped stretchers and raised on bun feet. The drawers are veneered in tightly grained burr elm veneers and feather banded; the chest and stand have pine sides. There is restoration to the stand and the pear drop handles are replaced. The chest on stand retains an exceptional warm honey colour. Circa 1700
