Description

An attractive antique corner chair dating from the early 20th century, c.1900. Crafted in dark-stained wood with a curved back and arms, the chair is decorated with fine carved details and turned supports. The square seat has been newly upholstered in a striking black and gold fabric, combining comfort with decorative appeal. The compact design makes it a versatile piece, ideal for a study, library, or as an accent chair in a hallway or living room. The chair is offered in excellent condition with a solid frame and brand new upholstery. A distinctive antique addition, ready to be placed and enjoyed.
