Description

A fine set of six antique dining chairs in the Renaissance Revival style, dating from the late 19th to early 20th century. Crafted in oak, each chair is richly carved with decorative crestring and turned spindles to the backrest, showcasing quality craftsmanship of the period. The seats and backs have been newly reupholstered in dark brown faux leather, finished with traditional brass studs, combining comfort with historic character. Excellent condition – solid frames with new upholstery, ready for immediate use. A handsome and practical set, perfect for a dining room, salon, or study, adding timeless style and presence to any interior.
