Description

A lovely oak hanging cupboard dating from the late 18th / early 19th Century. It has a panelled door with blacksmith made H-hinges and a small brass knob. It also comes with a working key. It is a useful small size and has a shelved interior with one full shelf and one cut away shelf. It is a good country piece and is in good condition for its age. There are signs of age and use, various marks and knocks and some areas of old woodworm which have all been treated as a precaution but the whole piece is strong and sturdy with a lovely rich patina. It is generally clean and tidy inside. It has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers. Please get in touch for an accurate quote to your location.
