Description

A good quality oak box settle dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It is a lovely country piece and a nice small size. It has traditional wing shaped sides and arms and a useful lift up seat with storage below. It is in good condition for its age and the oak has developed a wonderful patina. There are signs of age and use, some minor old marks and knocks and a couple of small chips and shrinkage splits but nothing untoward or detrimental. There are some signs of old worm in places which has all been treated as a precaution. The whole piece has been cleaned and given a gentle wax polish and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
