Description

A good example of a large english oak bible box dating from the 18th Century. It is a lovely plain design with naive carved initials 'TH' and date '1775' on the front. It has a flat top with chip edge borders. It has a blacksmith made latch and lock plate and the lid opens on its original strap hinges. It is in good condition and has developed a lovely rich patina. There are some signs of age and use, some old marks, knocks and minor shrinkage splits but nothing detrimental and overall it displays well. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
