Description

Art Deco Platinum Jadeite & Diamond Ring – Natural 15ct Jade, 1920s with GCS Gem Report This exquisite 1920s Art Deco ring showcases the clean, elegant lines and symmetry so characteristic of the period. Crafted in platinum, it features a magnificent apple-green oval cabochon jadeite jade, weighing an impressive 15 carats. The jade is secured in a refined six-claw setting and enhanced by classic step shoulders set with sparkling Swiss-cut diamonds, creating a striking contrast of colour and brilliance. Accompanied by a GCS Bond Street gemmological certificate, this ring is confirmed as natural green jadeite jade with no indications of impregnation – a mark of its rarity and quality. A true collector's piece and a timeless jewel, it would make an extraordinary statement or engagement ring. Supplied in the presentation box illustrated.
