Description

George III walnut bureau This elegant George III walnut bureau is a fine example of late 18th-century craftsmanship. Beautifully figured walnut veneers highlight the natural grain, complemented by original brass handles and escutcheons. The sloping fall front opens to reveal a fitted interior with small drawers, cupboard, secret compartments and pigeonholes, providing both charm and practicality. The interior also features a finely tooled leather writing surface, making it not only a statement piece but also highly functional. Beneath, four graduated drawers offer generous storage, all set upon shaped bracket feet. A timeless piece of English antique furniture, perfect for collectors and enthusiasts alike. "There is scarcely anything in the world that some man cannot make a little worse and sell a little more cheaply. The person who buys on price alone is this man's lawful prey."
