Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 4.27 carat diamond, 15 carat yellow gold and silver set pendant/brooch - boxed; part of our Edwardian jewellery collection. This stunning, fine and impressive antique pendant necklace has been crafted in 15ct yellow gold with a silver setting. The pierced decorated, sinuous frame is embellished with a feature claw 0.69ct and 0.65ct Old European round cut diamond, to the centre and apex of the design. The central feature diamond is surmounted with a leaf-shaped setting ornamented with two pavé set diamonds. The impressive scrolling frame is ornamented with sixty-two pavé set diamonds, in a combination of Old European, mine and Dutch cuts. The articulating terminal to the nadir of the setting is embellished with three further pavé set diamonds, completing the design. This feature pendant design suspends from a detachable 18' platinum chain; the chain secures via two small spring-loaded bolt fastenings to the upper border of the setting. This versatile piece of Edwardian jewellery may also be worn as a brooch, securing with a conventional hinged pin and clasp fastening to the reverse of the setting; the piece could be converted ...
