Description

Size: 5ft 6in x 3ft 4in (167 x 101cm). Antique Kyrgyz 'tush kyiz', embroidered yurt wall hanging. Circa 1900/20. Tush Kyiz are elaborately embroidered wall hangings, traditionally made in Kyrgyzstan and Kazakhstan by women to commemorate the marriage of a son or daughter. The colours and designs are chosen to symbolize Kyrgyz traditions and rural life. Designs are sometimes dated and signed by the weaver upon completion of the work, which may take years to finish. The tush kyiz is hung in the yurt over the marriage bed of the couple, and symbolize their pride in their Kyrgyz tradition. This fine example has a very detailed design in soft pastel colours on a black cotton ground, it is the tradition to leave the lower end of the panel un-finished. The condition is good with only very slight signs of use and a few small spots of damage. Stock Number: T-0308.
