Description

A stunning, fine and impressive, large antique 43.78 carat aquamarine and platinum pendant; part of our diverse collection of antique pendants. This stunning, fine and impressive antique aquamarine pendant necklace has been crafted in platinum. The classically simple pierced decorated setting displays a stunning feature claw set 43.78ct pear faceted cut aquamarine. This substantial aquamarine pendant suspends from an 18.5' 9ct white gold chain via a plain ring loop to the apex of the setting, securing to the reverse with a conventional spring-loaded ring clasp. This large aquamarine pendant has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as platinum and 9 carat gold. This impressive pendant is supplied with an IDGL gemstone grading report card. Such stunning and large antique aquamarines with this green overtone are becoming increasingly difficult to locate. This 43.78 carat aquamarine pendant in platinum is a thoughtful and elegant gift for life's significant moments. Perfect for milestone anniversaries or as a meaningful March birthday present, it celebrates love, longevity and the serene beauty of this birthstone....
