Description

A charming Edwardian oak occasional table dating from the early 20th century. The piece features a distinctive octagonal top set on a turned central column, supported by three elegantly curved legs. Crafted in solid oak, the table displays a warm, rich patina with a beautiful grain, reflecting both quality craftsmanship and over a century of history. Its versatile size makes it perfect as a side table, lamp table or occasional piece in a living room, hallway or study. Approximate measurements: height 70 cm width 56 cm depth 56 cm. The table is offered in good condition, ready to be placed and enjoyed. A fine antique addition to any traditional or eclectic interior.
