Description

A fine example of a late 19th century camphor wood campaign chest, now perfectly suited for use as a coffee table. The chest features three drawers with recessed brass campaign handles and brass corner fittings, retaining a warm, rich patina to the camphor wood grain. Side carrying handles remain intact, highlighting its original portable military design. In good condition with expected age-related wear. Ideal as a low storage chest or characterful coffee table. W 96.5cm (38") D 55.5cm (22") H 57.5cm (22.5")
