Description

A fine mahogany bureau dating from the early 20th century, crafted in the Queen Anne revival style. The fall front is beautifully veneered with a striking sunburst pattern and opens to reveal a fitted interior with pigeonholes and a small central drawer, ideal for organising stationery. Beneath are three long drawers, each with decorative metal fittings, providing ample storage. The piece stands on elegant cabriole legs terminating in pad feet, giving it both grace and stability. The bureau is offered in very good condition, with light age-related wear consistent with use. Please note, the key has been mislaid. A handsome and practical piece of English furniture, ready to place and enjoy

Internal Ref: A322
