Description

An attractive early 19th-century Welsh oak corner cupboard, showcasing traditional craftsmanship. The upper section features a moulded cornice with neat inlay and a pair of glazed panelled doors that open to reveal a shaped, shelved interior painted in pale turquoise. The base comprises a blind-panelled two-door cupboard with fitted shelves, raised on bracket feet with a shaped front apron. The cupboard separates into two sections for ease of transport. Practical and charming, this piece is a fine example of period Welsh furniture. Item Ref; M-6355 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 209cm / Width (across the front) - 89cm / Depth (back corner to right hand side edge) - 60.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good overall antique condition, with age-related wear consistent with use. There are marks and scratches throughout, along with staining and some loss to the interior shelves. The glazed doors show a few cracks, and there is splitting to the back. Historic woodworm to the reverse has been fully treated as a precaution and is no longer active. The cabinet remains sturdy and full of character. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection ...
