Description

A superb quality 19th century Scottish chest of drawers in striking flame mahogany. This elegant piece features a traditional arrangement of two short over three long cockbeaded drawers, all retaining their lovely original brass handles and locks. The rich mahogany has a deep, glowing patina with beautiful figuring throughout. Each drawer is constructed in solid oak with fine hand-cut dovetails, attesting to its craftsmanship and durability. The chest is further enhanced with finely carved rope twist detailing to the stiles, raised on turned bun feet, and finished with a moulded top and base. An excellent example of Scottish cabinetmaking, this chest offers ample storage while displaying timeless character. W 116.5cm (46") D 53cm (21") H 114cm (45")
