Description

A lovely treen Lignum Vitae string pot dating from the mid 19th Century. It has a turned body with threaded screw on lid. There is a hole for the string to come out and the finial is hiding a cutter. It has a natural rich colour and has developed a lovely patina. It is in good solid order with no major cracks or damages. There are of course signs of age and use and a couple of small marks and knocks here and there but nothing detrimental. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and displays beautifully. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £8
