Description

A fine set of three Victorian dining chairs, dating from around 1880 and crafted in mahogany with exquisite inlaid detail. Each chair features a shaped backrest with intricate floral marquetry, flanked by slender vertical supports. The seats are newly upholstered in a soft silver-grey fabric, providing comfort while complementing the rich tones of the mahogany. The front legs are gently curved, enhancing the elegant profile. seat height 45 cm. The chairs are offered in very good antique condition, with light age-related wear consistent with use. Solid and sturdy, they are both decorative and practical. A handsome Victorian set, ideal for a period dining room or as accent chairs in a traditional interior.
