Description

A charming Edwardian occasional chair crafted from beech, dating from the early 20th century. This fine example features a spindle back and beautifully decorated seat and backrest with floral inlay and ribbon motifs, adding elegance and character. The turned legs and sweeping side supports enhance its distinctive design, while the rich patina of the beech frame gives warmth and depth. Rare and decorative, this piece would make a wonderful statement in a period interior, whether as an accent chair or part of a vintage-inspired setting. The chair is presented in very good antique condition, with expected wear consistent with age, further emphasising its authentic charm. Seat height: 33 cm A fine Edwardian chair, ready to place and enjoy.
