Description

This is a beautiful pair of vintage Georgian Revival mahogany bedside chests, dating from early 20th century. The rectangular chests feature a pair of half width drawers over three full width drawers, and they are raised on bracket feet. These chests are very versatile and would look equally good in the bedroom as bedside chests or in the lounge as end tables/ chests at either end of your sofa. Condition: In excellent condition, having been cleaned polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation of condition. Mahogany has been used for centuries in ship building, house building, furniture making etc and is the core structure of just about every 19th century vanity box, dressing case or jewellery box. It became more of a Victorian trend to dress Mahogany with these decorative veneers, such as Burr Walnut and Coromandel, so that the actual Mahogany was almost hidden from v...
