Description

Very stylish 1930's Art Deco chrome and bakelite clock by the French manufacturers Jaz. Deceptively weighty time piece showing the quality that one expects from this maker. In full working order and in great condition this is an ideal clock for modern day use. Superb quality chrome frame, highlighted with brown bakelite supports, and a clear reflective silvered dial with very Art Deco style fingers and a bevelled glass face. Fabulously stylish 8-day Deco clock for any authentic Art Deco interior. In very good original & clean condition ; the chrome on the clock surround is 'as new' ; the chrome on the base has some very slight tarnishing (on very close examination), but is absolutely fine & just consistent with it's near 90 year age.
