Description

Heals Edwardian Antique Buttery Hutch Range Tall Boy Cupboard A superb quality solid oak Edwardian antique tall boy cupboard by Heals of London around 1915-20. Part of their Buttery Hutch range of furniture which was one of their most expensive, best quality ranges to produce. A lovely design having two cupboard doors to the top with raised, octagonal panels and with three graduating drawers beneath. All the drawers run very well, are cedar wood lined and have the original oak handles, to the top drawer the early Heals makers label is inset. Stands on lovely ball feet and around the edge of the tall boy is a decorative mould. This Heals antique tall boy is in fabulous, original condition and is a very good colour, a fine example. Dimensions Height: 122cm (48.41") Width: 80cm (31.75") Depth: 50cm (19.84")
