Description

A beautiful antique Chinese altar table, finely crafted from rich hardwood with a deep, polished finish. The rectangular top rests over an intricately carved apron featuring entwined foliage and berry motifs, symbolizing prosperity and abundance. The legs are shaped in a faux-bamboo style with pierced geometric stretchers, combining both elegance and stability. Traditionally used as an altar or side table, this piece embodies the artistry and symbolism of Chinese design. Its graceful proportions and detailed carving make it a striking focal point for any interior, whether displayed in a hallway, living space, or as part of a collection of Asian antiques.
