Description

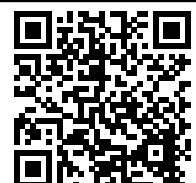

An attractive early 20th century oak jardinère stand, featuring a circular top with carved edges. The top is raised on a turned central column, supported by shaped scroll legs for stability and style. Crafted from solid oak with a warm patina, this stand is both practical and decorative, ideal for displaying plants or ornaments. Item Ref; M-6368 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 88cm / Width - 37cm / Diameter of the surface top - 27cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition overall, showing typical signs of age and use. The stand has surface wear, including marks and scratches throughout, with some fading to the top surface and the legs. Despite these age-related characteristics, it remains sturdy and retains its early 20th century charm. Our experienced carpenter thoroughly inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection to ensure it is fully prepared for use in your home. For a clear and accurate understanding of each item's condition, we ask that you carefully review all provided photos. These images are an essential part of the description and condition report, offering important visual details regarding the item's appearance and quality.
