Description

A charming Edwardian oak oval side table dating to circa 1900. This versatile piece features a beautifully patinated oval top with rich colour and grain, raised on four elegant turned legs united by stretchers for stability. Full of character and warmth, this table is ideal for use as a hall table, side table, wine table, or plant stand, making it a practical and decorative addition to any interior. In good antique condition with age-related marks and wear, consistent with over a century of use.
