Description

A refined Edwardian chaise longue dating to circa 1910, crafted from solid oak with richly carved decorative panels. The frame displays beautiful detailing, complemented by a deep red upholstered seat and matching bolster cushions, both in excellent condition. This elegant piece combines comfort with character, offering a timeless addition to any interior — whether placed in a drawing room, bedroom, or hallway. The quality of craftsmanship and the classic Edwardian design make it a highly desirable example of period furniture. Seat Height: 38 cm
Condition: Very good, sturdy and ready for use, with only minimal age-related wear consistent with its period.
