Description

A George 111 Carved Oak 3 Drawer Lowboy Side Table C1800, 76cm wide. A superbly stylish George 111, circa 1800, English oak lowboy or 3 drawer side table with exquisite layer carved decoration to the front profile, drawers fronts and moulding to the top. An elegant antique lowboy, a versatile hall or dayroom, bedroom or dressing room side table or writing table of handsome design and proportions. The 76cm wide rectangular table, often referred as a Lowboy, was probably later carved to an exacting symmetry in the 19th century, a fashionable later decoration of the Victorian period, whilst still retaining it's original pierced drawer handles, complemented with a shaped apron and tapering supports. Dimensions Height 72cm Width 76cm Depth 50cm A well constructed, English quarter sawn oak table of both function and form, a versatile antique table of considerable decorative appeal for a classic or contemporary space.
