Description

An exceptional quality William IV bookcase, crafted in beautifully figured walnut with a rich patina. The upper section features twin glazed doors opening to three height adjustable shelves, perfect for displaying books or treasured items. The lower section offers additional storage with a single shelf behind glazed doors. A particularly desirable feature is the central drawer, which opens to reveal a fitted writing slope with a green leather insert – a rare and practical addition. The bookcase comes in two sections for ease of transport. This is a very high-quality piece of early 19th-century furniture, displaying fine craftsmanship and elegant carved details, making it both a functional and decorative statement piece. In excellent condition, ready for the home or office.
