Description

Here we have an antique Edwardian (1901–1910) mahogany dining table with one extra leaf. Standing on four straight tapered legs with brass casters, it allows for easy mobility and a smooth extension. The winder mechanism extends the table to fit the extra leaf, creating additional dining space—perfect for special occasions when you need more room or prefer a more compact setting. This versatile table comfortably seats 4 people, and up to 6 when fully extended, making it ideal for use in a kitchen or dining room while bringing timeless Edwardian craftsmanship into your home.
