Description

A fine antique mahogany drinks cabinet dating from the early 20th century. This elegant piece features a solid mahogany frame with curved gallery sides, a central drawer with decorative carvings, and twin glazed panel doors opening to useful storage. The cabinet is topped with a removable serving tray, making it both stylish and practical for entertaining. The warm mahogany tones, quality craftsmanship, and versatile design make this a charming addition to any traditional interior, whether used as a drinks cabinet, occasional table, or side cabinet. In good antique condition. Solid and sturdy with minor age-related wear consistent with use, ready for immediate enjoyment. A versatile and decorative piece of furniture – perfect for adding character to your home.
