Description

A fine Victorian mahogany drop-leaf dining table dating from the 19th century. This versatile oval table stands on elegant cabriole legs with pad feet and features twin hinged drop leaves, extending to comfortably seat 4-8 people. When closed, the table is compact and practical, making it suitable for both large dining rooms and smaller interiors. The rich patina of the mahogany combined with graceful Victorian design makes this a highly decorative yet functional piece of furniture. In very good antique condition. Solid and sturdy with minor age-related wear, consistent with use. Ready for immediate dining or display. Width (open) – 151 cm A classic Victorian dining table – full of character and charm.
