Description

A good original oil painting on canvas in nice original condition painted in the manner of Sir Peter Lely (1618-1680). Sir Peter Lely, a painter of Dutch origin spent most of his career in England where he became the dominant portrait painter to the court. He was known for his Baroque style and Van -Dyck influences in painting the English aristocracy. Lely became a naturalised British subject and was knighted by Charles II in 1679. The work dates from the early Victorian era circa 1840 and is in what appears to be its original gilt frame which is also in very nice original condition. The frame measures 97 cms by 84 cms overall. Provenance: From the contents of Shillington, Manor Hitchin UK insured packing and delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £65 plus vat to most destinations.
